THE LAND & ITS HISTORY

Previously owned by a single family for many generations, the unspoiled land is both secluded and centrally positioned between Tulum and Cancún.

A central and vibrant part of Mayan culture, the area is rich with Mayan ruins and the remnants of their civilization.

Dense mangrove forests and rich jungle terrain reveal hidden treasures, including the Yucatán jay, red-eyed tree frog, black howler monkey and white-nosed coati.

EXPLORING THE OCEAN

Snorkel, paddleboard, kayak right from the shore

Cozumel, visible from the shore, has some of the world's best scuba diving

15 minute drive to Puerto Aventuras, the only marina in Riviera Maya

ALL-ACCESS FOOD EXPERIENCE

The first ever All-Access offering from The Ritz-Carlton with a program designed for owners

Culinary concepts by TalentChef, a world leader in resort food and beverage experiences

Destinations include The Farmhouse, a farm-to-table concept; Aldea, a minimalist, indigenous food market; Excursion Lounge, an elevated on-the-go hub; The Beach Club, a Mediterranean-inspired meeting place on the ocean's edge; Bonfire, a casual, open-fire Grill using time-honored cooking methods; and Sagrado, a traditional Mexican bakery and coffee lounge

SUSTAINABILITY

Development of less than 15% of the owned land, with a preservation focus on the dense mangroves, jungle forests and natural dunes

Building scale, sightlines and structures influenced by Mayan building traditions, which prioritized coexistence with natural elements

Property designed for walking, hiking, bicycling

Prioritization of local materials in construction

Food and dining experiences designed around local ingredients and traditional preparation

ON-PROPERTY EXPERIENCES

Four Swimming Pools, plus the Lagoon, a family-friendly swimming and splash-play area

The Spa, featuring a variety of transformative holistic treatments

Aldea, a convivial central gathering area, featuring the Farmhouse, Kids Club, Teens Club, and Ambassadors of The Environment

The Raquet Club, with professional tennis and pickleball courts

Restaurante Central, an open-air food-hall concept with six venues, including a distillery, wine cellar and speakeasy

The Beach Club, a full-service lounge and activities hub on the ocean's edge, offering a fully curated, Mediterranean-inspired menu

The Catamaran Club, a residents-only area within the Beach Club

Cooklab, a gastro-forward restaurant and demonstration kitchen
